

MRS. ISABELLA BINKS

The death occurred at Bangalow of Mrs. Isabella Binks, wife of Mr. W. Binks, senr., of Egmont, Bangalow. Mrs. Binks was born in the North of Ireland in 1874 and came to Australia at the age of 17 years. She resided in Sydney for several years, then moved to Cambewarra, where she married Mr. Wesley Binks in 1899. In 1907 Mr. and Mrs. Binks moved to the Bangalow district, where they bought property and have since resided. In addition to the widower, three sons and three daughters survive. The sons are Thomas (Bangalow), Oliver (Millaa Millaa, Qld.), Wesley (Bangalow), and the daughters Mesdames Boyd (Cooper's Creek), Hollitt (Sydney) and Draper (Bangalow). There are 19 grandchildren.

Mrs. Binks was a keen worker and supporter of the Methodist Church, also a member of the Bangalow branch of the Red Cross Society. In 1935 Mrs. Binks and her husband paid a visit to her old home in Ireland, where two of her sisters are still living. She has one sister, Mrs. J. J. Woods, living in Sydney. Three of her sisters who came to Australia predeceased her. One brother also predeceased her. He was Sgt. T. Maxwell, attached to the London police.

The funeral moved from the Bangalow Methodist Church for Bangalow cemetery. A service was conducted at the church and graveside by Rev. G. Ritter. Miss Jean Todd played the organ. Pallbearers were Messrs. W. Binks, T. Binks (sons), A. Draper, J. Boyd (sons-in-law), and N. Armstrong. Funeral arrangements were in the hands of A. Beckinsale.
